

11-th MOTOR CONTROL SUMMER SCHOOL

We invite bright, open-minded graduate students, postdoctoral fellows, and young professionals to apply for admission to the Motor Control Summer School # XI (MCSS-XI). MCSS-XI will be a five-day event, June 26-30, 2014. It will include an arrival day (June 26), three days of sessions (June 27-29), and a departure day (June 30). We plan to bring together 6-10 faculty and 30-40 students selected from the pool of applicants.

The preliminary list of speakers:

Antonio Bicchi (University of Pisa, Italy)

Anatol Feldman (Univ. of Montreal, Canada)

Slobodan Jaric (Univ. of Delaware, USA)

Mark Latash (Penn State Univ., USA)

Mindy Levin (McGill Univ., Canada)

John Rothwell (Univ. College of London, UK)

Gregor Schöner (Ruhr Univ., Bochum, Germany)

The program will include interactive seminars led by the faculty. Students are encouraged to interrupt the speakers, ask for clarifications, and raise issues related to their own research. Poster sessions will run throughout the meeting including the evening hours.

TUITION: none.

Each participant will pay his/her expenses. There will be no tuition, and the speakers will receive no compensation for their participation. MCSS has no funds (the total budget is exactly $0) to help with travel costs. All participants will get a formal certificate of attendance to help them get reimbursed through whatever means they have at their disposal.

SITE:

For the first time, MCSS will take place in Slovenia! A preliminary agreement has been reached with the “Elovitsa” Hotel/Conference Center in the town of Bled, a beautiful Alpine town alongside a glacier lake, about 20 km from the Ljubljana Airport. The current rates are about 330-410 euro (for double/single occupancy) for four nights including meals. Please, do not contact the Center and do not make any arrangements until you get an official acceptance letter to join MCSS-XI.

If you would like to participate in MCSS-XI, please e-mail a letter of interest to Mark Latash (latash@psu.edu) with a single-file PDF attachment containing a statement of personal goals and a c.v. with the list of publications and presentations. If you would like to present a poster, submit a single-page abstract (PDF, font Times New Roman 12, reasonably formatted). Abstract submission is not a prerequisite for attendance.

THE DEADLINE FOR RECEIPT OF APPLICATIONS: March 1, 2014. Earlier applications will get preference for admission. Admission decisions will be made by March 20, and those accepted will be notified by e-mail.
